DO YOU HEAR ABOUT . . . Sun Up Fats

Our Super Star who goes around telling team members to drop back and block, and curses if refused?.....Same Super Star hooks team members racing for lap leader?..... unfortunately SS fell and did not win anything...

The Hot Shot who claimed he, like many other top class racers would pay to ride without any prizes?....Same HS upon receiving his certificate for Rock Creek (8th place had no $$$ value) asked "What am I supposed to do with this piece of paper??".....

The very popular trio (General Jackson, Super (AL)Slaughter and Wonder Boy Prehn) getting fined 40 big ones at I.B.M.?.....Why? Well, it appears that this trio thought the club Officials were blind, dumb, stupid, or played favorites. They decided to pin on old numbers and race without registering or informing anyone that they were racing. When asked to retire from the race they yelled back "Don't count us"... Asked for a reason for their actions, the most logical answer was in the form of a guilty giggle....and sort of an apology. The other two actually were upset that we would call them out of the race.

....Somebody should tell these guys that the money, any money paid to NCVC is used by members of the club, and the only people on salary were the IBM road guards! Running the club costs money, and if the team members don't pay entry fees, who should????!!!!???

The two ex-Virginia State Champs? Roy Morris, with a commanding lead in the Senior race "sat on" Brad Marston who was on a lone and winning break from the Junior race... Both were disqualified...Roy admitted his own error, defended Brad who never took shelter from Roy. As a result Brad was moved to 2nd which qualifies him for Nationals at least...Moral of the story: if the Officials say don't mix with the other races, don't do it; it's not just yourself you could hurt...

FROM THE BIG WHEEL . . .

So far, every month someone at I.B.M., for whatever reason, tries to test the faith of the club Officials and race Promoters. So I'd like to explain that the races at I.B.M. are training and fund raising races. The training is for both the riders and Officials, so when these Officials are faced with deliberate and unnecessary problems, this can prove very discouraging.

Any member of N.C.V.C. refusing to pay entry fees and dishonestly entering a race will be suspended for a period of 60 days. Any rider who cannot, for whatever reason, pay an entry fee, see the race Promotor or Myself and let's talk about it. All moneys paid to this club serves you, the club member especially racing team members. Please help us help ourselves.

In response to the request for help from our experienced racers, Tom Prehn, Larry Black, Charlie Frederiksen, Stephen Dolezalek, Paul Lenz, and Barbara Miles have expressed an interest in conducting instruction classes, private tutoring, question and answer periods, and any other thing that would help other members race better.

I would like to thank Phil Klinkon and Jim Bradford for taking the time to answer questions on training and racing at the June membership meeting.

I still find that one of the best ways of picking up valuable info is walking right up to our better riders at I.B.M. and asking away.

Final thought: who were the Cat. 4 racers with nerve enough to complain about the course at the Baltimore Fair? Fellas, those races were to help sell your sport, not give you O.D. points. Come on!!!!!!

-MIKE

MOTORPACE ANYONE???

Norm Huber is back from his two-year tour in Panama and he has his motorcycles with him. For those of you who are interested in doing some motorpacing, renewing old ties, or just listening to some fascinating stories about bicycle racing in South America, Norm can be reached at Abrams Hall, Box 1653, Washington D.C. 20012; 427-5272. Maybe he'll speak at a club meeting soon?
